

[1964, ca. Nov 6]

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO: SOUTHEASTERN REGIONAL CHAPTERS
FROM: CORE SOUTHERN DIRECTOR
RE: REGIONAL CHAPTERS MEETING

The Southeastern Regional Chapters Meeting will be held in Durham, North Carolina on November 6 and 7, 1964. This is the first regional meeting to be held since its establishment by the CORE National Convention of 1964. Floyd B. McKissick, CORE National Chairman and John Due, Regional Vice-chairman, are arranging the program.

James Farmer, CORE National Director, will speak to the conference on "New Directions for CORE". Dave Dennis, newly appointed CORE Program Director for the southern regional, will discuss the southern program. It is expected that there will be at least one representative of the United States government from one of the numerous federal agencies with whose work CORE is concerned. In addition there will also be other speakers, other topics and ample opportunity for floor discussion. If CORE is to keep abreast of the fully changing trends in civil rights, our chapters will have to keep fully informed of these changes. One of the means of keeping informed is the regional chapters meeting. By all means attend.

The conference will draw from approximately twenty chapters in the region, and each chapter may send unlimited representation from its membership. Registration fee is one dollar per person.

Address any further inquiries to: Floyd B. McKissick, Esq.,
213½ Main Street, Durham, N. C.
