JACKSON : From Bill White

10:00amA bus-load of staff people and Bob Bolden's car have arrived in Jackson.

11:30 pm Jackson reported two telephone threats:

3:30 pm(Jackson time): Someone called and asked for Ed King.
"If you see him, tell him we're going to kill him. He's a damn son of a bitch and so are you."

7:10 pm (Jackson time) The caller was not the same man who had made the first call. He had a very heavy southern accent.
"You damn white sons of bitches, we're going to kill you all."
He was referring to his "gang, the Desperadoes".
"We shot our way through Laurel" When asked if they were the ones who bombed the newspaper office, he proudly replied
"yes." "I've been through two wars. You can bet your life is short."

12:00 pm Ron Carver called the New Orleans FBI. The above threats at the Jackson office were reported.

TV networks NBC and CBS spent a good deal of time filming Ed Hollander , victim of a beating by police in jail on the morning of June 26.<sup>27</sup>He was interviewed by ABC, AP, UPI, and The New York Times.
